

EXTERMINATOR BEATS BONIFACE IN PHILADELPHIA HANDICAP

WONDERFUL DRIVE IN STRETCH GIVES WIN TO ROSS ENTRY

King of Stake Horses Concedes Weight and Loses by a Nose.

FAVORITES IN FRONT

Enchantment Equals Track Record by Stepping Four Furlongs in 0:47 Flat.

By HAWTHORNE.

HAVRE DE GRACE, Md., April 22.—That element so familiarly known to followers of thoroughbred competition as "racing luck" entered into and played a prominent part in the running of the Philadelphia Handicap, at Havre de Grace this afternoon. In one of the most bitterly contested and gruelling stretch drives imaginable, the Exterminator, the large crowd to its feet in wild frenzy of cheering, Comdr. J. K. L. Ross' Boniface was turned the winner over Willis Sharpe Kilmer's Exterminator.

Although forced to bow to defeat by the narrow margin of a nose, America's greatest distance performer, added to his already large host of friends by the courageous manner in which he almost overcame an impossible disadvantage he suffered when Jockey Arthur Johnson allowed him to be pocketed at the three-quarter pole.

Asked to concede lumps of poundage to every other entrant in the feature, the aged campaigner and hero of more than a dozen of America's greatest stake events, dispelled any doubt which may have existed as to whether he was still the Exterminator of 1920 and 1921. That Exterminator is still the Exterminator of old, was proven beyond a question of doubt.

Six Go to Post.

Allotted equal weights and given an even break in the running, Exterminator would undoubtedly have been returned the victor. Even without his brilliant score, Boniface, likewise, suffered repeated interference, but not to the extent as to materially hamper his chances like that which fell to Exterminator.

Ten had been named over night to face the barrier, but when scratch time came four declined the race. The Kilmer entry's friends were still loyal and legions were borne out by the fact that he went to the post on an odds-on-favorite.

The start was delayed two minutes through fractious behavior by Wellfinder, the Miller candidate repeatedly breaking up peremptory alignments just as the barrier was to be sprung. After repeated trials Starter Milton got them straightened out and as the webbing rose Wellfinder was the first to show on top.

Passing the half-mile pole, Bunge Buck had forged to the front, with Boniface in closest pursuit and Exterminator racing almost on a par with the Ross' silk bearer. Bunge Buck cracked under the gruelling pace and gave way to Boniface, while Johnson still held Exterminator on the pole in back of the two leaders.

Pocketed at Three-Quarters.

As they neared the three-quarter mark, Johnson moved up to find himself pocketed and forced to take up, leaving considerable ground. Under punishment the aged campaigner when once clear, came again, slipping through on the inside rail. It was this move that probably cost the Kilmer starter the race.

In a few strides Exterminator had overhauled Bunge Buck and then began the herculean task of catching the Ross silk bearer. With the large crowd wildly cheering, Exterminator gained on the leader, and as they passed the eighth pole their heads were almost nodding in unison.

Johnson seemed to realize that if he could only get his mount's head once in front victory would be theirs, and the same realization must have been conveyed to Turner and Boniface. Exterminator refused to falter and try as he might, Exterminator was unable to stick his nose out in front.

As they thundered by the judges' stand the verdict was so close that many viewing the finish from a slight angle thought for a moment that Exterminator had won. As the winner and runner-up returned to the unsaddling ring both were accorded a noisy ovation by the crowd.

Upset in Climax Handicap.

The secondary feature of the program, the Climax Handicap, saw one of the few upsets of the day. Harry Payne Whitney's Broomster had been made the favorite over a better than average band of 3-year-olds, but was forced to inhale dust from E. P. Whitney's Mainmast. J. K. L. Ross' Hildur was the one to place.

Exceptional time was made in the event, every even and one track record was equalled. Harry Payne Whitney's 2-year-old Enchantment not only earned his second pair of brackets in as many starts, but stepped the four-furlong route in :47 flat, equaling the record.
